

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF THE MARRIAGE OF IAN CHAVEZ AND ELIN CHAVEZ

Date: May 01, 2026

I, Alex Jose Adame, declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I am the Young Adults Pastor at Mannahouse Church in Portland, Oregon, and I work in business development for a higher education technology company, Campus Innovation. I am submitting this statement voluntarily in support of the marriage-based immigration application of Ian Chavez and Elin Chavez.

I have known Ian Chavez for approximately two years. I was introduced to him through our pastor at Mannahouse Church, where he became an active and faithful volunteer of our young adult leadership team. Through this connection, I also came to know his wife, Elin Chavez. Over time, both my wife and I have had consistent opportunities to observe both of them individually and together as a married couple.

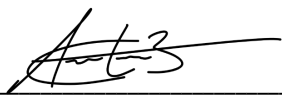

I have personally mentored Ian and have walked alongside him through various seasons of life, both spiritually and personally. Through regular one-on-one conversations, shared experiences, and ongoing interaction, I have developed a strong understanding of his character, integrity, and values. I consider him a close and trusted friend.

My wife and I have spent significant time with Ian and Elin together on numerous occasions, including sharing meals, participating in ministry events, and engaging in the life of our community. Through these repeated and consistent interactions, we have directly observed the nature of their relationship. Their marriage reflects genuine affection, mutual respect, shared values, and a clear, ongoing commitment to building a life together.

Based on my personal friendship with both Ian and Elin, the time I have spent with them individually and as a couple, and my direct observation of their relationship over an extended period, I can state with full confidence that their marriage is genuine, committed, and built on a real and loving relationship.

I remain in regular contact with Ian and continue to support him.
