I've known Ian since him and I were in college back in 2021, we grew to be close friends and not long after that I was told by him that he was dating this girl named Elin. They eventually got engaged and then eventually married on June 7th in 2023. Ian and I have been close friends throughout and since our time at Portland Bible College. He was also the best man in my wedding on June 3rd, 2025.

They are currently living in Elyria, Ohio and have a son named Indigo who was born on April 14th, 2026.
