Hey Ian!

Here is the statement!

To whom this may concern,

My name is Erika Wilkins and I am a pastor and a legal US citizen, as well as a friend to both Ian and Elin Chavez. I have known both Ian and Elin since 2020 when I met them at Portland Bible College. Throughout the years while pursuing our degrees, I watched the two of them grow in friendship as well as love and companionship. It has truly been beautiful to see the way they both pursue life and each other with passion and excellence. Ian is a man of integrity, strength, and compassion complemented well by Elin who carries herself with grace, wisdom, and faithfulness. As a close friend, spiritual sister, and cheerleader of them both, I can testify to the blessing their marriage brings to me personally as well as to our country holistically. I proudly support them and bear witness to their character.

Sincerely,
Erika Wilkins
