

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in support of Ian and Elin Chavez as part of their immigration process. I had the privilege of working directly with Elin and Ian during their time as students at Portland Bible College both her time on staff and Ian as a volunteer. In Ian's role as a volunteer within the Marketing Department, he consistently demonstrated exceptional work ethic, reliability, and a positive attitude. He was a stand-up student who approached every task with dedication and professionalism. I also worked along side Elin as a co-worker and got to see their story unfold from the beginning. Both Ian and Elin were exceptional students and are amazing people.

I had the honor of attending Ian and Elin's wedding here in Oregon in 2023. Their ceremony and the way they interacted with one another made it clear that their relationship is genuine, committed, and rooted in mutual respect. Over the time my wife and I have known them, we have observed the sincerity of their love and the strength of their partnership.

Both Ian and Elin are devoted not only to each other but also to building a stable and meaningful life together. They are hardworking individuals who take their responsibilities seriously and consistently demonstrate integrity in everything they do.

It is my sincere belief that Ian and Elin's marriage is authentic, and their character and dedication speak for themselves. I fully support them in this process and trust that they will continue to contribute positively to their community and family and hopefully soon as a US citizen.

Sincerely,

Jeff Borota
