

How I know Ian Chavez is when I attend the same bible college as him in the year 2023. He was one of the first guys I've met and we quickly became friends soon after he helped me move in. He made me feel very comfortable and at home during my time there I remember he invited me to his dorm room to play video games and just hang out. He's a very down to earth guy and I'm very glad I got to meet him. Also during the time I met Ian he was already dating his now wife elin. She's a very sweet and kind person, she's also a nonsense which is really fun to see whenever Ian is being overly silly she would bring him back to reality haha. But they both are a very sweet couple and I had the privilege. To be invited to their wedding a few years back it was such a. A beautiful wedding.

Ian is a very kind soul whenever he is around anyone he always makes them feel welcomed and as part of the group! With that he always made sure elin was safe, protected, and comfortable. He also worked really hard to make sure everything was in order, Ian's probably one of the hardest working friends I know. And I know that he tries his hardest to provide for his wife Elin. matter of fact even though he works hard I know that he always makes time to spend time and take his wife out to events and gatherings me and my wife would also come over to hangout and spend some quality time with one another. But all that to say is Ian and his wife are very close to me and my family hes a good man and a dear friend to me.
