

I have known Elin and Ian for over the past four years. I worked closely with both of them at our church, Mannahouse, in Portland Oregon. I got to see them go through their dating phase all the way to getting married and pregnant. It's been a wonderful opportunity to have friends like them who I have seen grow in our previous job together, welcome me into their home, and continue to go out of their way to keep in contact even after their move to Ohio. I will continue to gladly represent them throughout Ian's citizenship process if needed.
